VOL. XXXII MIDDLEBURY, VT., TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1867. NO. 37.

The Tribune for 1863.

The year 1863 will long be remembered for its settlement of the boundary question between Aristocracy of Color and Impartial Human Liberty.

It is difficult to argue with a blind, besotted prejudice, grounded in ignorance and fortified by self-conceit.

It is hereby enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Vermont.

As for the man who is to be the chosen standard-bearer of the Republic lost in the impending contest.

We will think such friends as believe that this Tribune will prove an efficient and cheap way to influence the undecided.

As his most trusted advisors; while an esteemed member of our editorial staff has just accompanied the Ambassador of June 2 to Mexico to see the Mexican problem closely and under auspices more favorable to the Republican chief than those which have colored the advice of our regular correspondents at Vera Cruz and the Capital.
